

A SPECIFIC JOURNEY.

Mon histoire est autour de deux amis qui adorent les voyages et les expéditions mais celle qu'ils vont réaliser dans l'histoire ne va pas se passer comme prévu car ils vont rencontrer un certain nombre de problèmes qui vont les empêcher de profiter de leurs passions dans la forêt amazonienne du Brésil.

The story start in a very little city in USA who nobody know the name. Dan is the main character and Tom is his bestfriend. There are work in a fast food for gain dollars to finally practice there passion : travel and discovery. But this time the travel is going to go very bad..

Dan : Tom you finish the work at 5pm ?

Tom : yes for what ?

Dan : Do you want to go in a bar to talk about our next travel ?

Tom : yes but you told me that you wanted to go to the Amazon forest ?

Dan : yes but for discuss more precisely about that

Tom : ok but i have to charge my phone too

Dan : ok so come at my appartement.

Tom : ok perfect.

At the appartement of Dan.

Dan : so we take the ticket for Brasil ?

Tom : yes i think we can do that.

Tom : anyway let's talk about work

Dan: yes, there were a lot of people last night at the fast food restaurant, don't you think?

-Tom : yes really it was long and complicated

-Dan : Around 9 p.m. especially but you'll never guess who I saw.

-Tom : No tell me.

-Dan : I saw the scientific of the laboratory.

-Tom : For real ? and did you hear something?

-Dan : Yes but it wasn't clear, they were talking about a temple hidden in the jungle I think.

Tom : That's good, we'll be able to go there to see if there's something hidden there.

Dan : YESSSS.

Tom : what scientist was he.

Dan : Do you remember the scientist Titus, you know the one who is short, a little bald and has a facial deformity?

Tom : yes, i see who he is.

Dan : The other day I was talking with a scientist who works with him and he told me that he had heard a conversation between doctor Titus and a colleague of his called Otis and he heard that Titus and Otis had discovered a virus that was lodged in the rain thanks to a diffuser and that the latter could destroy the planet when it rained.

Tom : Are you lying or is it really true?

Dan : No i swear.

Tom : We need an organisation bro.

Dan : yes for sure, we have to go in the amazon rainforest because the rain at this place is very away, this will give us plenty of time to find a solution.

Tom : yes that is a very good organisation.

Dan : luckily the tickets are for tomorrow

Tom : yes for real.

The next day the two best friend are at the airport

Dan : It's time to save the planet haha.

Tom : don't laugh about that, you're going to bring us bad luck and we're really going to have to save the world or escape.

Dan : no don't worry.

At the hotel in Brasil.

Dan : are you exited about the exploration of tomorrow ?

Tom : Absolutely no bro, you are exited by an exploration who will perhaps kill us.

Dan : you are a coward haha.

Tom : pfff.

The day after, in the amazonian forest.

Dan : so we are dead bro ?

Tom : shut up.

Dan laughs in a ironic tone.

Tom : look ahead it looks like a temple buried under the trees.

Dan : do you think that is the temple the scientist was talking about ?

Tom : i don't know but i think is possible.

Dan : lets go see.

Five minute later Tom finds a very strange key

Tom and Dan searched for hours and hours in the temple but found nothing until Dan stepped on a paving stone which opened a gigantic door. They now had to solve a riddle to access a passage from which a very bright light was escaping. The two friends found the secret code but they heard voices, notably that of the scientist in the first room. Once in the new room they discovered a spaceship and flew to escape from the scientists who were breaking time with their rain virus. The two friends went far into the sky with the spaceship.
